

(a) Age errors alone move $\langle r \rangle$ across Poisson→GUE; the reported value sits at the top edge of the noise

(b) A zero-repulsion scalar clock reproduces BOTH the $\langle r \rangle=0.68$ and the -0.03 'rigidity' (a normalization artifact)

